

Bio

Scott McDonald graduated from Northbrook College in 2014 after 2 years training on the Fdeg Musical Theatre Course.

He has pursued a career in performance dipping his toes in lots of live corporate work gaining his experience with touring tribute bands, weddings, functions and theatre tours as a singer.

The last few years saw him taking a new direction in producing theatre. He worked for RED Entertainment as Programmer, Tour Manager and Production Co-Ordinator working on UK Theatre Tours of 'Hormonal Housewives' and 'Wannabe: The Spice Girls Show'. He also personally produced a new musical 'Gretel!' Off West End at The Other Palace in 2019.

As well as performing Scott continues to create new material as his alter-ego Lonnie Bangford, whom he has an online presence and performs as a cabaret act. This character was born from the mockumentary web-series 'City Of Dreams' which he created with fellow alumni Lauren Douglin.

Scott is currently signed to Six O'Clock Studios agency who secured him his latest contract as a dancer/singer for Carnival Cruise Lines.

Scott is forever grateful to the training he received at Northbrook, in particular the insight into all disciplines that create theatre. He believes it has given him an invaluable knowledge and appreciation of other theatre practitioners and has aided his career immensely.
